36. On a hot summer day, a thirsty lion walked down to a pool to drink water. At the same time, a boar arrived at the same pool to quench his thirst. They quarrelled as to who should drink first.

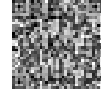

“Get out of my way, let me drink first !” growled the lion.

“No, you won’t ! I came here first, so I’ll drink first,” replied the boar. Soon, they started to attack each other.

Seeing them fight, two vultures settled on a tree discussing, “How nice it would be if they both kill each other and we could eat them both !” They sat waiting to feed on the flesh of the one who gets killed first.

As they stopped for a while, the lion and the boar saw two vultures at a distance. “If we fight with each other, one of us will get killed. They saw us fighting and that’s why they are here,” said the lion.
